Thousands of Travel Agency Consumer Websites Now Sharing Alexander + Roberts Content

Beaverton, OR (September 21, 2021) – Alexander + Roberts, a pioneer in luxury international travel, has added its journeys to websites powered by Passport Online.

In response to the upturn in international leisure travel that is coming in the months ahead, and as travelers plan for trips in 2022 and 2023, Alexander + Roberts distinctive array of travel programs around the world is available now through Passport Online to share with your clients.

This luxury travel brand, known for its small groups of Never More than 16 Guests, as well as its privately-guided versions of these same itineraries for 2+ travelers, is perfectly fitted to the emerging, post-pandemic traveler. These discerning guests are increasingly looking to their Travel Advisors to present more travel options that incorporate fine accommodations and dining with the enrichment of discovering new cultures. The ‘small footprint’ of Alexander + Roberts journeys are enhanced by their professional native guides who hail from the land one is visiting. With an excellent command of English, these guides offer deep knowledge, cultural sensitivity and insider’s access not commonly available.

As Alexander + Roberts approaches its 75th Anniversary, Passport Online is pleased to provide this American company’s well-crafted product-line that services 88 destinations on all seven continents.
